

main. objectives

- a) To create a young generation of youths who can enjoy healthy lifestyle and resist negative influences that can put them at risk of HIV infection
- b) To create well informed youths who can take right decision on HIV related issues specific objectives

- a) To increase knowledge and understanding among youths on the prevention and control of HIV infection
- b) To cultivate positive attitudes among the youths which enable them to avoid risky lifestyles that can put them at risk of HIV infection and other social ills
- c) To encourage healthy living through personal empowerment and moral values
- d) To produce competent peer motivators who can influence their peers to actively participate in fighting AIDS